EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY STATEMENT

This is to affirm the Company's policy of providing equal opportunity to all employees and applicants for employment in accordance with all applicable equal employment opportunity/affirmative action ("EEO/AA") laws, directives and regulations of federal, state, and local governing bodies or agencies thereof.

The Company will not discriminate against or harass any employee or applicant for employment because of age, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, status as a protected veteran, genetic information, because of inquiry or discussion about or disclosure of compensation, and all other federal, state, and local protected classes. The Company will not subject any employee or applicant to harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion or retaliation for participating in activities related to the administration of laws requiring affirmative action and equal employment opportunity, for opposing any actions made unlawful by those laws, or for exercising any other rights protected by those laws.

The Company will take affirmative action to ensure that all employment practices are free of discrimination. Senior Management, including the Company's top U.S. executive, fully supports the Company's affirmative action program. The Company hires, upgrades, and transfers persons in all job titles for which they are qualified without regard to disability, protected veteran status, or any other legally protected status, as required by law. It also recruits, advertises jobs, lays off, disciplines, terminates, pays, and selects for training, including apprenticeship, pre-apprenticeship, and/or on-the-job training, without regard to disability, protected veteran status or any other legally protected status. The Company bases employment decisions only on valid job requirements so as to further the principle of equal employment opportunity. The Company is committed to taking affirmative action to employ and advance qualified individuals with known disabilities and protected veterans at all levels, including the executive level, of the Company.

The Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act, as amended ("SECTION 4212"), and Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 ("Section 503") prohibit discrimination against and provide for affirmative action benefitting protected veterans and disabled individuals. The Company does not subject employees or applicants to harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion, discrimination, or retaliation because they have engaged in or may engage in filing a complaint, assisting or participating in an investigation, compliance evaluation, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of SECTION 4212, Section 503 or any other federal, state, or local law requiring equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities or protected veterans, opposing any act or practice made unlawful by Section 503, SECTION 4212 or their implementing regulations, or any other federal, state or local law requiring equal opportunity for individuals with disabilities and protected veterans, or exercising any other right protected by Section 503, SECTION 4212, or their implementing regulations. The Company makes reasonable accommodations for qualified protected veterans and individuals with known disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship or direct threat to safety. Management also takes appropriate steps to provide reasonable accommodation upon request to employees whose religious beliefs or restrictions create a conflict with Company policies, practices, or procedures so long as doing so does not create an undue hardship. If an employee needs a reasonable accommodation, the employee should provide a written description of the employee's situation and needs to Human Resources and Human Resources will contact the employee to discuss the request.

The Company encourages its supervisors, forepersons and employees to refer qualified /qualifiable females, minorities, protected veterans, and disabled persons.

The Company will use its best efforts to afford minority and female business enterprises with maximum practicable opportunity to participate in the performance of subcontracts for projects that this Company engages in, to the extent applicable.
